

West Valley Demonstration Project

Security Measures for Public Meetings

Effective immediately, new security measures are in place at the West Valley Demonstration Project (WVDP) site and the Ashford Office Complex (AOC). The following security measures will be implemented for all public meetings held at the AOC, starting with the August 24, 2016 Quarterly Public Meeting:

1. Main entry doors will remain locked at all times.
2. Visitors will be required to present identification upon entry. A list of acceptable identification can be found on the following pages. Visitors must provide one primary identity document or two secondary identity documents.
3. The standard list of prohibited articles applies. A general exception for cell phones is granted. Other types of electronic devices, such as computers and tablets are permitted provided the owner can physically demonstrate to the assigned officer that the device powers on as intended. Radio frequency transmitting devices are prohibited.
4. Visitors will be subject to random search as indicated by the random search generator or for cause.
5. All hand carried items/packages will be searched.
6. Visitors will sign the visitor log; however, visitors are not required to wear any form of badge or name tag. Verification of citizenship is not required.
7. Foreign nationals (non-U.S. Citizens) are permitted access to public meetings without prior authorization, provided they present a form of acceptable identification. Verification of citizenship is not required.

Please see the following pages for acceptable forms of identification.
